From Pastor Matt

Dr. Joel Gregory once told a class full of would-be preachers that preaching is like Barbequing. You can gather your ingredients (plan), marinate/season the meat (study), and tend the fire (pray and prepare), but you still never know how things will turn out until it's done! I have found this to not only be true in preaching, but in how God works through our efforts to serve and be faithful to him, as well.

This past Sunday was a joy to witness baptism, along with children singing and sharing their gifts. These celebrations demonstrate the fruit of prioritizing discipleship and family in our fellowship. During business meeting, you heard reports about families going on mission to Honduras together, discipleship groups consisting of youth and adults happening, along with record camp attendance plans. At the beginning of the service, pictures were shown that portrayed a long, handicapped ramp some of you built for a home-bound member, as well as efforts by others in assisting some beloved ladies change residences.

My point in sharing all this is that you CAN'T plan for these types of opportunities presenting themselves at once – but you can prepare your mind and heart to respond rightly to them through prayer, Bible study, Godly fellowship, etc., trusting that God will be in the results.

Believe me when I tell you that God is at work in our church. Hang around us long enough, and you'll start to see it, too!

Pastor Matt

EASTER @ FBC

APRIL 18 - GOOD FRIDAY SERVICE 6 PM
APRIL 20—EASTER SUNDAY WORSHIP 11 AM

From Our Family Ministry Leader

Church Family,

I see God moving in our midst. I watched as God's people don't just respond in prayer, but in action. I've witnessed so many members of our church share God's love through serving others recently. It's SO encouraging to see God's love acted out in the lives of believers.

Over the past couple weeks, I started 2 small discipleship groups centered around teaching some adults and students how to study God's word. I'm about 3 sessions in and am blown away by how God continues to reveal Himself through His word to His people. I can't wait to see where God takes these young men and women in their faith journey.

Please pray for these individuals mentioned below as they grow in their walk with the Lord. Inevitably, when believers begin to press in and focus on spiritual growth through discipleship, Satan will look for every possible opportunity to hinder that growth. I've prayed for some time that God will show me who He wants me to disciple, and I'm honored that He helped me choose these individuals.

Men's group: Aaron Watson, Waylon Tinsley, Adrian Blackmon, Lane Wesson, & Logan Robinson.

Women's Group: Angela Grenwelge, Kristy Tinsley, Daisy Jarvis, Morgan Robinson, Miranda Hackney, & Reagan Mikulenka.

At FBC Llano, we strive to share God's love, show God's love, & grow in God's love. May we all have a deep hunger to act out these aspects of our church culture for the sake of making HIS name famous to Llano, Tx and beyond

Thank you for allowing me to serve the Lord in our church and community. It's truly a blessing!

Rick Berry
